

Picture it ...

Family and friends seated at a large table with fried chicken and buttery biscuits, homemade mashed potatoes, green beans and fresh-baked pie for dessert. The soft flickering of candles offers the room's only light.

Experience this magical meal on a trip to Ohio Amish Country!

We're headed north on a five-day trip (including travel) to scenic Wooster, Ohio, April 21-25, 2012.

Day 1: Travel day—two stops in West Virginia (Tamarack & a glass factory TBA)

Day 2: Agriculture enterprise visits (planned by Ohio Farm Bureau) and personal time

Day 3: Visit to Certified Angus Beef® brand offices in Wooster, Ohio. Ours is the first state Angus Association to tour and host a seminar in the new Certified Angus Beef® Education & Culinary Center. Agenda includes a meat-cutting demonstration, local Angus ranch tour and interactive chef discussion.

Day 4: Amish heartland tour—sites include Wendell August Forge, P. Graham Dunn, Lehman Hardware and Heini's Bunker Hill Cheese House. Dinner in an Amish home.

Day 5: Travel day—home

Enjoy lodging in Berlin, the heart of Ohio Amish country, and memorable tours throughout the region. Join us for this fun-filled, educational event!
